

Maine Crafts Association

MAINE CRAFTS ASSOCIATION

The MAINE CRAFTS ASSOCIATION promotes education, understanding and appreciation of the work of Maine craft artists and their importance in Maine's rich and varied economies and distinctive communities.

The CENTER for MAINE CRAFT came into being through the collaborative efforts of Maine's premier craft organizations seeking ways to encourage growth and increase awareness of the significant role craft artists play in Maine's culture, economy and heritage.

DESIGN, ARTISTS & DONORS

...and Engineer, Bangor
 ...
 Angela Adams, Portland, and Shaw Contact Group
 Shoestring Creative Group, Gardiner
 Ruth Demstein Photography, Damascus
 Collabric, Veazie
 Naline Woods, Gary Knauls, East Wilton
 Geoff Warner, Furniture and Handcrafted Cabinetry, Stonington
 James MacDonald, Mampetree, Burnham
 Stone Ridge Glass, Lucie Boucher & Bernard Huotier, Waterville
 Thomas Cote, Woodcarver, Limestone
 Oaks & Parkhurst Glass, Manchester
 Ted Ney, North Cove Design, Yarmouth
 Forge, Wondolac

PARTNERS, FUNDERS & SUSTAINING INSTITUTIONS

...for Furniture Craftsmanship
 Center for Maine Contemporary Art
 Waterfall Arts
 Governor and First Lady, John and Karen Baribacci
 Maine Turnpike Authority
 Maine Arts Commission
 Maine Office of Tourism
 Maine Department of Transportation
 Maine Department of Agriculture
 United States Department of Agriculture
 Bangor Savings Bank
 Libera Foundation
 Great Bay Foundation
 Maine Community Foundation
 L.L. Rice
 Bethelmerit Foundation
 Quimby Family Foundation
 Livsey Foundation
 Tri-County Workforce Development

www.mainecrafts.org

Enjoy true craftsmanship — visit the new CENTER for MAINE CRAFT

What will you find?

- Authentic handcrafted work by Maine artisans
- Cultural tourism information
- Exhibitions of fine craft
- Demonstrations by talented craftspeople
- Maine handmade goods, books, music, film and food

100 Main St.,
 24 Sunnyside Plaza Drive
 Bangor, Maine 04401
 888-835-6236 • 207-586-8027

